SECOND DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, the claims and allegations made against this Defendant in an individual capacity fail to state a claim upon which relief can be granted and should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

THIRD DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant was at all times acting within the course and scope of duty as a sworn law enforcement officer engaging in discretionary and governmental functions and, therefore, this Defendant is entitled to all immunities applicable to a public officer or official. This includes, but is not limited to, the common law defense of good faith, as well as governmental, qualified and public official immunity. This Defendant pleads all other applicable immunities to which this Defendant is entitled by operation of law in bar of plaintiffs' claims for relief.

FOURTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant asserts that plaintiffs' allegations fail to state a claim for punitive damages and should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such claims violate this Defendant's Due Process rights under the North Carolina and United States Constitutions. This Defendant pleads all defenses, rights, remedies, immunities, and limits set forth in N.C.G.S. § 1D of the North Carolina General Statutes as a bar and/or limitation to plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages.

FIFTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense and alleged in the alternative, if there is a finding this Defendant is legally responsible for any damages, which is again denied, then this Defendant asserts that the actions of plaintiffs caused and contributed to some or all of the alleged damages. Specifically, plaintiffs repeatedly and unjustifiably ignored and defied lawful instructions given. This Defendant raises as an affirmative defense that these acts on the part of plaintiffs were a direct and proximate cause of any injuries or damages allegedly sustained. As such, any recovery by any competent plaintiff should be barred by their own contributory negligence. Alternatively, any recovery should be barred or reduced by plaintiffs' failure to mitigate damages.

SIXTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant asserts that all actions taken during the encounter with plaintiffs were objectively justified and reasonable given the threatening and illegal acts of Plaintiffs that were objectively unjustified. This Defendant raises the affirmative defenses of legal justification and just and probable cause as a bar to plaintiffs' claims.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant asserts as an affirmative defense qualified immunity by virtue of this Defendant's role as a City of Raleigh Police Department police officer. More particularly, this Defendant was acting as an agent of the City of Raleigh Police Department, was acting without malice and in the good faith belief that all duties were carried out in accordance with the laws, statutes, and the Constitution of the United States and the North Carolina Constitution. Thus, this Defendant raises the affirmative defense of qualified immunity to bar plaintiffs' claims.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, at all times relevant, this Defendant interacted with plaintiffs reasonably and did not violate any of Plaintiffs' established statutory or Constitutional rights. This Defendant raises as an affirmative defense reasonable and lawful conduct as a bar to - plaintiffs' claims.

NINTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, at all times relevant, this Defendant exercised sound discretion and judgment and acted within reasonable limits in all acts and contact with plaintiffs' given the facts and circumstances of the case. This Defendant raises the affirmative defenses of sound discretion, reasonable belief, and fair judgment as a bar to plaintiffs' claims. Defendant also raises consent to the extent plaintiff(s) consented to certain acts complained of in the pleadings.

TENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant raises all applicable immunities arising by operation of law in bar of plaintiffs' claims. This includes, but is not limited to, investigative and testimonial immunity.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant asserts that all conduct taken with plaintiffs was legally privileged; therefore, plaintiffs are barred from any recovery.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant asserts that all conduct during the encounter with plaintiffs, who failed to follow reasonable commands, was necessary given the circumstances. This Defendant raises the affirmative defense of necessity as a bar to plaintiffs' claims.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant asserts that exigent circumstances justified all conduct and acts about which plaintiffs complain.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, at all times relevant herein, this Defendant was under a duty to prevent crime and is consequently immunized from liability under the crime prevention privilege.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this plaintiffs' damages claim is restricted by their failure to plead special damages.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, these plaintiffs failed to exercise reasonable diligence and ordinary care to minimize their damages and should have any recovery barred or reduced by the doctrine of failure to mitigate and/or the doctrine of avoidable consequences.

SEVENTEETH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant exercised sound discretion and judgment and acted within reasonable limits in all contacts with plaintiffs given the facts and circumstances. This Defendant's appropriate exercise of judgment bars Plaintiffs' claims.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

This Defendant raises a lack of standing for the corporate plaintiff to participate in this lawsuit, pursuant to Rule 12(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant complied with all applicable laws and regulations and, having so complied, acted without improper motive and any alleged injury or claim (which is specifically denied) is not actionable.

TWENTIETH DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant acted in compliance with and pursuant to N.C.G.S. 15A-401. Compliance herewith is a bar to all applicable claims asserted by plaintiffs.

TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

As a further answer and defense, this Defendant raises the defense certain plaintiffs engaged in acts of conduct that were negligent, grossly negligent, and/or intentional bad acts as a bar to claims asserted in the Second Amended Complaint. Defendant, similarly, raises the defense of intervening and superseding bad acts of third parties as a bar to claims against this defendant.

RESERVATION AND NON-WAIVER

This Defendant reserves the right to assert and rely on additional affirmative defenses which may become available or apparent during discovery, further investigations, or at trial.

WHEREFORE, this Defendant respectfully requests from this Court the following relief:

1. For Plaintiffs' claims to be dismissed;
2. For Plaintiffs to have and recover nothing from this Defendant;

3. For the costs and attorneys' fees associated with this action be taxed against Plaintiffs as allowed by law and in the discretion of this Court;
4. For a jury trial on any triable issue; and
5. For any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

This the 15th day of September, 2022.
